d) Spirit of Cricket

Cricket is a game that owes much of its unique appeal to the fact that it is expected to be played not only within its Laws, but also within the Spirit of the Game. Any action which is seen to abuse this spirit causes injury to the game itself. The major responsibility for ensuring the spirit of fair play rests with the captains.

1. There are two Laws, which place the responsibility for the team's conduct firmly on the captain.

I. Responsibility of captains

The captains are responsible at all times for ensuring that play is conducted within the Spirit of the Game as well as within the Laws.

II. Players' conduct

In the event of a player failing to comply with the instructions by an umpire, or criticising by word or action the decisions of an umpire, or showing dissent, or generally behaving in a manner which might bring the game into disrepute, the umpire concerned shall in the first place report the matter to the other umpire and to the player's captain, and instruct the latter to take action.

2. Fair and Unfair Play

According to the Laws the umpires are the sole judges of fair and unfair play. The umpires may intervene at any time and it is the responsibility of the captain to take action where required.

3. The Umpires are authorised to intervene in cases of;

- ❖ Time Wasting
- ❖ Damaging the pitch
- ❖ Dangerous or unfair bowling
- ❖ Tampering with the Ball
- ❖ Any other action that they consider to be unfair

4. The Spirit of the Game involves RESPECT for;

- ❖ Your opponents
- ❖ Your own captain and team
- ❖ The role of the umpires
- ❖ The game's traditional values

5. It is against the Spirit of the Game;

- ❖ To dispute an umpire's decision by word, action or gesture
- ❖ To direct abusive language towards an opponent or umpire
- ❖ To indulge in cheating or any sharp practice, for instance
  - * to appeal, knowing that the batsman is not out
  - * to advance towards an umpire in an aggressive manner when appealing
  - * to seek to distract an opponent either verbally or by harassment with persistent clapping or unnecessary noise under the guise of enthusiasm and motivation of one's own side.

6. Violence

There is no place for any act of violence on the field of play.

7. Players

Captains and umpires together set the tone for the conduct of a cricket match. Every player is expected to make an important contribution to this.

8. Square Leg Umpiring – Role and Duties

When performing the role as a Square Leg Umpire it is important to understand that whilst you may be a member of the batting team when you are acting as an umpire your role is impartial and thus you are not really a member of the batting team but you are a member of the 'umpiring team'.

If you have concerns of any nature, it is wise to consult with the appointed umpire

There may be occasions where you may be called on to act as a Square Leg Umpire.

This position is equally as important as the main umpire, and involves a number of duties, which we list below for your information.

Please read carefully

1. Count the balls bowled in each over and confer with partner by way of a prearranged signal.
2. Watch for, then call and signal any short runs at your end.
3. Give descriptions (decisions) on appeals for: (a) Hit wicket (b) Stumped (c) Run out (at your end)
4. Call the signal No Ball when: the wicketkeeper does not remain wholly behind the wicket until the ball delivered by the bowler touches the bat or person of the striker, or passes the wicket or the striker attempts a run.
5. Indicate No Ball to central Umpire for waist high full toss.
6. Check there are no more than two fielders behind the line of the popping crease on the on-side at the moment of delivery.
7. Be ready to give advice to partner in instances where he/she may have been unsighted.
